

Membership to the Learning Support Network is open to professional educators and practitioners working in learning support spaces within early childhood centres, primary and secondary schools, kura and Kōhanga Reo. Each enrolment application is screened against these criteria.